

Empire of Brazil

Committee Dossier

Note: Position assignments are dependent on registration and are not all guaranteed to be filled in committee session.

Marechal Deodoro da Fonseca - First President of the Republic of Brazil	As the first President of the Republic of Brazil, Deodoro da Fonseca led the military coup that overthrew the monarchy in 1889. He served as the provisional president from 1889 to 1891 and later as the elected president until 1894.
Emperor Dom Pedro II - Head of Delegation	Emperor Dom Pedro II, a progressive and enlightened monarch, leads diplomatic initiatives to strengthen Brazil's global standing. His strategic vision includes fostering alliances that enhance Brazil's military and economic influence.
Princess Isabella de Braganza - Cultural Envoy	Princess Isabella promotes Brazilian arts, literature, and traditions to forge cultural connections. Her cultural diplomacy aims to attract international interest, fostering economic partnerships and alliances.
General Antonio Silva - Military Strategist	General Silva ensures defense and security, employing strategic acumen in potential conflicts and alliances. His military expertise contributes to negotiations for mutual defense agreements and strategic partnerships.
Eduardo Nunes - Economic Advisor	Eduardo Nunes negotiates trade agreements, attracts investments, and promotes economic growth within the empire. His economic insights play a crucial role in positioning Brazil as an economic powerhouse on the global stage.
Beatriz de Souza - Social Reformer	Beatriz advocates for improved living conditions, healthcare, and education for the Brazilian citizens. Her social initiatives contribute to the empire's economic stability by fostering a healthy and educated workforce.
Ricardo Almeida - Brazilian Explorer	Explorer Almeida shares tales of Brazil's diverse landscapes and resources, enhancing its global image. His exploration narratives contribute to economic interests by highlighting Brazil's potential for resource trade and investment.

Isidoro Rocha - Afro-Brazilian Abolitionist	Isidoro Rocha advocates for the abolition of slavery, showcasing Brazil's progressive stance. The abolition of slavery is not only a social reform but also a strategic move to ensure a free and skilled labor force for economic development.
Carlos Mendes - Naval Officer	Naval Officer Mendes secures naval alliances and promotes Brazil's prowess in maritime strategy. His role is vital for safeguarding trade routes and expanding Brazil's influence in naval trade and military alliances.
Henrique Ramos - Coffee Plantation Owner	Coffee Plantation Owner Ramos represents Brazil's economic interests, particularly in the coffee trade. His knowledge of the coffee industry contributes to economic negotiations and establishes Brazil as a key player in global trade.
Antonia Silva - Women's Rights Advocate	Antonia Silva champions women's rights, aiming to enhance the status of women within the empire. Empowering women economically by ensuring their participation in various sectors contributes to overall economic growth.
Fernando Oliveira - Diplomat and Linguist	Diplomat Oliveira facilitates communication and diplomacy, showcasing linguistic expertise. His linguistic skills aid in smooth negotiations and understanding, fostering economic and military alliances.
Isabel Rodrigues - Education Reformer	Isabel Rodrigues focuses on educational reforms to elevate the intellectual prowess of Brazil. A well-educated populace is crucial for economic growth and innovation, contributing to Brazil's standing in the global knowledge economy.
Joaquim Santos - Scientific Innovator	Scientific Innovator Santos contributes to showcasing Brazil's advancements in science and technology. Technological advancements play a pivotal role in economic growth, making Brazil an attractive partner for innovation and collaboration.
Lucia Mendonça - Environmental Conservationist	Lucia Mendonça advocates for environmental conservation, aligning Brazil with global sustainability efforts. A commitment to environmental sustainability enhances Brazil's reputation, attracting environmentally conscious partners for economic collaborations.
Felipe Torres - Indigenous Rights Activist	Felipe Torres champions the rights of indigenous communities, emphasizing cultural preservation. Protecting indigenous rights contributes to social stability, positively impacting economic development and international relations.

Adriana Costa - Philanthropist	Philanthropist Adriana Costa engages in charitable initiatives, fostering goodwill and humanitarian efforts. Her philanthropic activities contribute to Brazil's positive image, facilitating economic partnerships and diplomatic relations.
Gabriel Lima - Literary Luminary	Literary Luminary Lima represents Brazil's literary achievements, promoting its contributions to world literature. Literary diplomacy enhances cultural ties and creates opportunities for economic collaborations in the creative industries.
Rosa Oliveira - Healthcare Reformer	Rosa Oliveira focuses on healthcare reforms, aiming to improve public health within the empire. A healthy population is essential for economic productivity, contributing to Brazil's economic stability and growth.
Diego Fernandez - Trade Negotiator	Trade Negotiator Fernandez navigates global markets, fostering economic partnerships and trade agreements. His expertise in trade negotiations contributes to Brazil's economic prosperity and global economic integration.
Matilde Pereira - Indigenous Artisan	Matilde Pereira showcases indigenous artistry, contributing to cultural diplomacy and appreciation. Indigenous artistry can become an economic asset, attracting cultural tourism and international markets for indigenous products.
Raul Garcia - Labor Rights Advocate	Raul Garcia addresses labor rights issues, ensuring ethical practices within Brazil's workforce. Upholding labor rights is not only a social responsibility but also contributes to stable economic conditions and international trust.
Mariana Santos - Woman in Politics	Mariana Santos advocates for women's participation in politics, striving for gender equality. Women's participation in political and economic decision-making enhances diversity and promotes sustainable economic development.
Francisco Cruz - Diplomatic Historian	Diplomatic Historian Cruz provides historical context to Brazil's diplomatic endeavors, enriching discussions. Understanding historical alliances and conflicts aids in strategic decision-making, contributing to Brazil's diplomatic and economic success.
Ana Rodrigues - Youth Empowerment Activist	Ana Rodrigues focuses on empowering youth, ensuring their active participation in shaping Brazil's future. Investing in youth empowers the workforce and contributes to long-term economic development and innovation.